Water-viewing

A traditional line design, adapted in Canada in the 1960s, with a dominant line of plant material and great use of space, in a shallow container with $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{2}{3}$ of the container surface showing water. Modern line design does not fit this definition but could be used in a design calling for Visible Use of Water.

Comments: I am proud to have won this award for my entry in the Dahlia Show. I have been growing dahlias for many years and this is my first award. I am very grateful for the support and encouragement of the judges and the other exhibitors. I will continue to work on improving my dahlias and I hope to win more awards in the future.

SWAG

A three-dimensional design of plant material with or without accessories, constructed to hang against a vertical surface.

(Source: Ontario Judging and Exhibiting Standards, 2019)

Design

A combination of fresh and/or dried plant materials, with or without other objects arranged to create an artistic unit. A design may include container(s), base(s), and/or accessories. The designer uses the elements of design: space, line, form, colour, texture and pattern in the accepted principles of design: balance, rhythm, proportion, scale, contrast and dominance to interpret the theme and/or class and create a design of harmony and distinction.
